SAVAGE ENCOUNTER -- Lowell Thomas takes time out from filming the fifth installment of "High Adventure with Lowell Thomas" (CBS-TV, Monday, March 24th, 8:00-9:00 p.m., EST) deep in the Australian Outback to talk over the "good old days" with old-time bushman and drover, Matt Savage. Latter helped the Lowell Thomas party to relocate the bones of famed Australian-American explorer, Harold Bell Lasseter, who disappeared in the Australian desert in 1931. The hunt for Lasseter and a fabulous gold reef makes up the fifth edition of "High Adventure with Lowell Thomas." The series is sponsored by the United Motors System and Delco-Remy Division of General Motors.
