GOOD LISTENER---Lowell Thomas (right) takes some good advice from John Grisham, who knows his way around the rugged country of north-east India, during filming in color of sixth edition of "High Adventure with Lowell Thomas" which will be televised on CBS network Saturday, April 19, from 9:00 to 10:00 p.m., EST. Grisham, carrying elephant rifle, was a most valued scout with the famous Merrill's Marauders during that unit's tussles with the Japanese in Burma in World War II. A hunt for wild elephants and man-eating tigers features this particular edition of "High Adventure with Lowell Thomas," which is sponsored by the United Motors System and Delco-Remy Division of General Motors.
